III. Commitments

The Group has determined that we do not and will not, pay bribes or offer improper inducements to anyone for any purpose, nor do we or will we, accept bribes or improper inducements.

The Vendor shall comply with the Group’s Anti-Bribery Policies, and local, regional or country anti-bribery laws and regulations, regardless of local business practices or social customs.

IV. Guidelines

1. Follow code of conduct

- 1) As a party doing business with the Group, you shall comply with this Policy.

2. No facilitation payments

A facilitation payment is a financial payment that may constitute a bribe and is made with the intention of expediting an administrative process. It is a payment made to a public or government official that is meant to be an incentive for the official to smooth or expedite certain actions or process to the benefit of the party making the payment.

The Group will NOT accept the offering of any facilitation payments and prohibits all Vendor from making any facilitation payments directly or indirectly on behalf of the Group.

3. Due Diligence

In the process of Vendor registration, the Group shall conduct due diligence checks. Vendor will be required to provide relevant documents including but not limited to valid business registration documents. We will also take reasonable risk management measures in respect of persons who perform or will perform services for or on behalf of the Group for the purpose of identifying and mitigating bribery risks.

4. Raise Concerns

However, if the report leads to an investigation by regulators or authorities, it may become necessary for the Whistleblower to provide evidence or be interviewed by the relevant regulators or authorities. The Whistleblower will be advised in advance if his/her identity may become apparent or needs to be disclosed to any external parties outside the Group. In order not to jeopardize the investigation, the Whistleblower is also required to keep confidential the fact that he/she has filed a report as well as the nature of concerns and the identities of those involved.
